Ranking high in Google's search results can have a phenomenal impact on the success of your business. You can either engage the expertise of a Search Engine Optimisation company, or if you have the time, there are some changes you can make to your website yourself. Step 1: Keyword Research What keywords do you think your customers would type in to search for your products or services? A keyword can be one word (e.g. optimisation), but multiple keywords or keyword phrases are usually preferred, because they are more specific and more likely to be what your customers are looking for (eg. Search Engine Optimisation Australia). and more... Tags: SEO
