this EA will move the stop loss (S/L) on your MetaTrader 4 terminal up or down depending if the trades are buy or sell automatically depending on the settings that have been entered. Setup ----- copy the simple-trail-v1.3.ex4 into C:Program Files your brokerexperts. restart MT4 to see the EA under experts. Settings ----- The following can be configured in the EA: 1. Trail value in pips , if using a 4 digit broker then use a value example 10 for 10 pips , or for a 5 digit broker use a value 100 for 10 pips. 2. Your own comment displayed on the chart. 3.sound - true or false , if true then a tick sound will be heard every time the stop loss is moved. some helpful info ----- dont set the stop loss too low , as the market moves up / down your trade might be closed if the stop loss is set too low , once you have entered trade give it enough space (IE stop loss) to reach a profit , I recommend a minimum of 10 pips. The EA will also show: the last order that was modified , and current spread. This Ea will work for 4 or 5 digit brokers.
