Automatically create Auction Ads that really hit potential bidders between the eyes without ANY programming! Auction-O-Matic is the only eBay template software that I need... it does everything for me. it generates everything I need to create great eye-catching, bid pulling auction listings and saves me so much time.. Thank You..." Rick Norris - (eBay seller) Before I tell you about Auction-O-Matic and how it can quickly help you to increase your Auction Profits. Let me briefly explain how and why I developed this neat little program: A few years back when I started selling on eBay I couldn't help but wonder why some very similar auction items to the things I was listing, would always receive more bids than my own - Pushing up the winning bid price for the other guy's auction! Why do some identical items end with higher winning bids? It took me ages to figure it out. I mean, I always used photo's and detailed descriptions - just like everyone else after all... I spent weeks eliminating one thing at a time doing little systematic 'tests' to compare the differences between; The length of an auction, The starting price, Not using a reserve etc., etc. Then FINALLY late one night I worked it out!... You'll be surprised to learn that it wasn't any the things I had first been thinking of at all. The Ads just look professional! It's because the ads that pull the most bids at auction are professionally formatted using "HTML" coding to make the advert even more 'eye catching' than a standard listing, and followed a winning copy-writing formula. Some were even interactive - with new windows that popped open upon request! I didn't know how to do any of this clever stuff, do you? During the evenings of the months that followed, I decided to teach myself everything I could learn about HTML and Javascript programming. So that I would be able to get ahead of the rest of the crowd, and post the best adverts possible - full of little auction secrets. My hard work eventually paid off and I put everything I had learnt into one very simple 'step-by-step' system that automatically generates all the HTML required to create a great looking, bid pulling interactive auction advert. This system has now been turned into a proper auction tool I have called Auction-O-Matic! Auction-O-Matic is now available for instant download! As far as I am aware, there is nothing else anything like Auction-O-Matic available on the Internet , after all that is why I originally spent months teaching myself how to program HTML and Javascript in the first place. Save yourself the time and effort of learning how to hand code HTML and let Auction-O-Matic generate all the source code for you - automatically. You'll be pleasantly surprised how much time you'll save. SO HOW MUCH DOES Auction-O-Matic COST? Well, let be be honest with you, I've discovered a great deal about selling online, and selling using Internet auctions by testing absolutely everything, including prices! I have decided to set a 'minimum' price for Auction-O-Matic at just $3.95 which is the price I am currently testing today. However, like I say I am currently 'price testing' so if you want to be sure of downloading Auction-O-Matic at the minimum price I would advise you not to hang about. Many of my online friends have suggested that $3.95 this is too low, and I should be thinking nearer 50.00. I believe price testing is the only way to find out the best price for sure, so that's what I'm doing... Now you have discovered Auction-O-Matic, you'll soon be able to create an unlimited number of bid pulling auction ads for any auction item you have in just just minutes - without any programming and without any headaches.
