Why Start An E-Zine? Now Even an Average Joe Can Claim His Fame to Internet Marketing Stardom! Make Money Online TODAY! E-zine publishing is one of the most lucrative Internet Marketing models on the Internet today! There are billions of dollars transacted online yearly. As a matter of fact, the Internet population is expanding at such an alarming rate, more and more businesses are considering a migration towards the online world (and abandoning their offline counterparts at the same time). But the main question is how much of that share do you want out of it? How big (or small) of the pie do you want to claim as your very own? Part of the struggles of the 21st century is to find a business model that is not only scalable (that means you dont have to work harder for the same amount of profits) but at the same time easy to setup and low-risk. Brick and mortar businesses have very high overheads and not to mention physical restrictions as well it is no wonder why people are turning towards the Internet. Part of the joys of starting an Internet business is the fact that you can operate it at home. You dont have to get stuck in rush-hour traffic, squeeze your way through a congested train or run after a bus. You can do everything from the comfort of your home, in your pajamas, with toast, eggs and coffee next to your computer at 11am in the morning. It is true that making money online is one of the most lucrative markets people are getting into. The best thing is, you dont have to worry about customers paying you late (cash and credit card business), collection problems (the 3rd party merchant accounts will bank the money into your bank account), and piling up on stock and inventory (all the products are in digital format). This is truly an online utopia at our fingertips. But, even among Internet businesses, there are many challenges as well. So, why E-zines?
