The .diz files are regular text files, you can open in your favorite text editor. The extension .diz is used to enable you to put the whole product directly in a blog tool. This way you do not need to fear, that these lists/descriptions (a.k.a. not-rss-content) are published on your site. The blogging tool should only process .txt-files. Hence .txt is used only for publishable rss content, but not for internal information. It is just used to make your life easier. Get 25 rss PLR articles, #1 now! Tags: rss cash
