You can download a free demo. For nearly 10 years, the Cycling Manager series, created by Cyanide studio, has offered a clever mix between sports simulation and management. It has continuously increased its audience through its different versions, each introducing novelties and each becoming the new video game benchmark for hundreds of thousands of players. At the head of one of the 65 official teams or of a team of your creation, you have to manage every aspect of a great cycling season: such as contracts, training, finances, transfers and of course the races themselves which are full of adrenalin and twists. Race the most prestigious international cycling competitions during more than 500 stages.
