Attention Entrepreneurs, If Youre Not Tapping Into The iPhone App Market Then Youre Missing Out On A BIG Slice Of Money Pie! Right Now, You Can Easily Become The Next iPhone Application Millionaire In A Few Easy Steps! Leverage On The Smoking Hot Mobile Phone Application Market And Earn A Fortune Even If You Are A Technological klutz! The mobile phone application is poised to become the next big thing in the market. I know you may think: iPhone applications are just playthings and who would pay for all these anyway? Well, let me talk about a real life person whom we will call X for privacy reasons. X wanted to create some sideline income to supplement his day job, so he created little applications that people could download for a small fee. He didnt think much of it, but to his amazement and surprise, it generated four figure sums after a few days, then a staggering $800,000 over the next five months. Its strange how little things like that can place huge profits into your pocket but its true. Besides X, a handful of programmers have come up with silly little applications that are downloaded numerous times, and bringing their creators at least 5 figure sums of cold, hard cash. Yeah, you mentioned only programmers can create such applications. But Im not! Does that mean Ill have to go for a private course and spend time learning how to create these applications? No, you wont have to. Yes, its true that youll need programming knowledge. But youre not going to be the one who does all that mucking around. I mean, can you imagine Steve Jobs actually doing all that technical work for Apple? Of course not! Successful people like him delegate their work to others while they rack their brains and come up with more brilliant cash generating ideas That was one of the things I learnt when I tried to create my own iPhone applications. Sheesh, I struggled for weeks, wasting hours in research, tweaking, and messing around with programming matters. When I finally hit my eureka moment, I looked back and realized that it took me heck of a time just to create one application. So I retraced back my steps, refined the process and did it all over again. This time round, I was able to create an application that was way faster and more profitable than the previous one Talking to several wannabe application creators on forums, I realized their one major concern was a lack of guidance in creating iPhone applications. They didnt know head nor tail! Its Time To Jump In On The Hottest Market Around... How many times have we all sat back and

thought Why didnt I think of that? The time is NOW to jump on this market, and strike while the iron is red hot, and thats why I have created this unique eBook and course for you, nothing comes close to what is on offer today..... Introducing: Instant Phone Riches The Most In-Depth iPhone app Manual Online Is At Your Fingertips! Instant Phone Riches is a step by step manual that will take you by the hand through the maze to creating and profiting from your own iPhone apps. From brainstorming to the actual creation of your very first app, you could be the NEXT iPhone app millionaire! Discover how people with absolutely NO technical know how are raking in 5 or 6 figures easily selling iPhone apps...you read that right, people with no knowledge on iPhone app development are making insane money right now! Creating an application doesnt require you to be a genius or have programming skills. This guide will show you how you can get top-notch programmers to work with you and soak you in creative juices you never had to produce a hot-selling application! Important matters in creating an application that you will learn include: * Creating applications that sell like hotcakes and loading your wallet with tons of cash! * Important factors to consider when looking for a reliable, solid programmer who will create profitable and engaging applications your customers will love! * How to not end up shelling a ton of cash for a sneaky programmer who takes your money and idea then disappears faster than a ninja on crack! * Digging out tons of profit-generating, hysteria inducing ideas that turn into red hot, magnetic applications people will fight to own! * Know exactly what your customers want in an application with these cunning little methods! * Leveraging on the hottest trends to discover quick ideas for a popular application * Key things you need to do before even developing your application miss this and all your efforts will be wasted. * Using little known online resources that help any technological dummy create applications easily! * Circumstances where you should promote free applications and when you should promote paid applications But...thats not all. There are other things that you need to learn when it comes to getting your application seen by everyone else out there and it takes marketing skill to get your product noticed. Fortunately, that will be a piece of cake once you learn: * The key steps to leveraging on the deadly viral power of social media sites * How to get tons of strangers to promote your application without them becoming your affiliate! * Using other simple web 2.0 applications to have hordes of targeted, hungry buyers tussle for your applications (Its so simple that youll slap yourself for not thinking of it!) * Dont have the resources to develop an application? Heres a secret to profiting big time in the application market without developing one yourself! * And much, much more!
