Piano, violin cello playing some of the most delightful melodies you could have heard on the Titanic... 16 MP3 Songs WORLD: Australian, EASY LISTENING: Background Music Details: The Blue Mountains Trio is based in Katoomba, Blue Mountains, Australia. Gustaw Szelski - violin/Georg Mertens (same as Mertens-Moussa 1990-2002) - cello and Gavin Tipping - piano. A wonderful collection of some of the most delightful melodies of an age when society was rather indulgent in both style of entertainment and the musical selection chosen to accompany its grand style of dining. If you have experienced breakfast at Tiffany's, High Tea at Harrods, Dinner on board the Titanic, or Supper on the Zeppelin....This collection is for you. Immediately you are transported to the grand era of where life moved a little slower and the finer movements were savoured a little longer. - The selection includes one of the finest - if not the finest - arrangements of the Blue Danube, Pachelbels Canon, La Paloma, Perfect Day, Danny Boy and real gems whose composers are hardly known today. For the first years this CD was sold only locally, in Katoomba in the Blue Mountains in Australia (that's where the "Three Sisters" are) . Within two years more than one in a hundred of Blue Mountains people owned one (1300 copies sold - population of the Blue Mountains 90 000). It was sold privately and by one local CD shop who said it was the first classical and local CD in his life which was sold like international Pop bestsellers. One of the top hotels in Katoomba copied our "Cafe Continental" and put it on a loop. We went in to listen to it and left after hearing it for the ninth time in a row. Today we were told, after four years, it is still playing, and everybody is well and healthy. Gustaw and Georg of the Blue Mountains Trio formed between them the "Paganini Duo" (see CD "Blue Mountains Gypsies) (The cello played by Georg on this CD is for sale.
