"The first time I heard Cris's voice ... it was like honey drippping on a cello." - Bonnie Raitt 17 MP3 Songs
FOLK: like Joni, FOLK: like Ani Details: Sprinkled throughout Cris' own original tunes are sweet covers of familiar and unfamiliar delights: Leonard Cohen's "Sisters of Mercy" is worth the price of purchase all alone, if you haven't heard Cris do it...James' Taylor's "Mill Worker" and Eric Anderson's "Is It Really Love At All" are simply fine. And the title cut by Mary McCaslin and Cris and Jennifer Wysong's "Sweet Woman" are classics by now. This live recording is one to savour.
