Her spirited, sincere songs will speak to your soul as though you wrote them yourself; soon you'll be singing along with Karen's rich folk voice, imagining rainbows and a future of world peace, smelling cookies baking, hearing mandolins in the distance. 10 MP3 Songs WORLD: Judaica, FOLK: Modern Folk
Details: Karen Daniel's flavorful folk/pop melodies are prepared with a big dose of sincerity, a touch of Jewish tradition, a pinch of lesson-learning, and even a dash of humor...God takes a nap after creating the world, we pray for peace in Israel for the sake of the children, and we sing a song about a rainbow and a promise from above. Raised in Nashville, Tennessee, Karen Daniel has written songs since the age of 14. Best known for her upbeat, very singable songs, at her live concerts she performs a mix of folk, Jewish, Hebrew, traditional and original songs. Her songs are known and performed in synagogues and churches around the country. Karen plays and writes by ear, and has a natural, gentle, warm singing style. Inspired by her own life experiences and children, her songs describe the Jewish traditions and themes, and are well-liked by listeners of every faith and age group. For a soothing listening experience that will leave your soul feeling well-fed, buy Karen's Breaking the Lock cd. The title song is the true story Karen's grandmother, Clara Miller, who lived from 1903-1984. We break the lock around our hearts when we relive old memories, and release the love that's hidden in there...it is hoped that these songs will move you in this direction.
