Eventually, through the direction of Troyton, a record company evolved, Black Shadow Records, Inc. which took the dancehall world by storm, with key direction coming from Father Wes and original key players Daddy Reds Buttafuko. Currently Black Shadows Enterprise is divided into; Black Shadow Records Inc., Black Shadow Sound, Black Shadow Distribution and Troyton Rami LLC. The powering force behind Black Shadow Records is Troytons hard work, his ability to bring out the best in any given artist, his unique style, and building life-long connections and friendships. Also he has a hard working team of people driven to succeed including but not limited to; Bobby, Snow, Kim and one of the best engineers to date, Gary Noble. these are some of the key elements of Black Shadows continued success. Without a doubt, this company is one of the early founders and key players behind the dancehall, reggae, reggaeton, and hip-hop cross-overs. Black Shadow has released hit songs for the biggest names in reggae, and reggaeton such as Beenie Man, Wayne Wonder, Mr. Vegas, Capleton, Elephant Man, Mad Cobra, Sizzla and Buju Banton, T.O.K., Tanto Metro Devonte, Lady Saw, Macka Diamond, Mr. Easy, Chico, Alozade, Red Rat, Tego Calderon, Tito El Bambino, Daddy Yankee, and many many more. Since the first song came out in 1997, Black Shadow has been dedicated to releasing music that tops the charts, not just locally but internationally. In 1998, Troyton released what many would say was one of the first fusions of hip hop and reggae together that really worked, the "Paid in Full" Riddim, in which almost every song on the album was popular. Some of "Paid in Full"s hits were "Look so Appealing" by Sean Paul or the well known "Under Mi Guinness" by Mr. Vegas. The song Gimme The Light (Off of the Buzz Riddim), performed by Sean Paul, reached the top 10 Billboards Hot 100, Hot Rap Tracks, and Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Singles Tracks in 2000. This single had remained on the Billboard charts for almost a year and is still going strong. Black Shadow Records released top selling music for some of the biggest names in reggae and has too many hit tunes to include all of them in here. All should agree, that Black Shadow Record's studio is truly where the music comes alive. Today you can see Black Shadow working on albums for many hot artists such as Beenie Mans album "Undisputed", Daddy Yankee's new album, Sasha's new album, Tego's new album, Tito's new album, Elephant man's new album and their own various artist, multi-riddim album.
