Renaissance and Traditional music of France and Central Europe for the Mountain Dulcimer and other instruments. 31 MP3 Songs WORLD: World Traditions, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: Idlewild performs Celtic Traditional music from Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Brittany, and the Isle of Man. You may also hear them play early and traditional music from various cultures, such as English, French Old time American and Renaissance music. David and Carol Sharp formed Idlewild more than ten years ago. Dave plays flute, whistle, recorders, mountain dulcimer, tenor banjo, mandolin, guitar, fiddle bodhran, and sings tenor vocals in several languages. Dave has played music with many ethnic groups from a wide variety of cultural backgrounds. He enjoys researching and playing all kinds of ethnic and traditional tunes. He is also an animator (network television for 16 years), and a woodcarver. Dave is also the Business Agent for the American Federation of Musicians, Local 104. Carol plays mainly the Celtic harp, hammered dulcimer, whistle, tamborine, and bowed psaltery for performances. She specializes in the smaller lap harps and is a certified practitioner of harp therapy by the International Harp Therapy Program. Carol specializes in musical activities and therapy with children. Dave and Carol are joined by their friends: Mark Jardine has long been one of the most prominent fiddlers of Celtic and traditional music in the west. He was a founding member of the Deseret String Band, Ten Penny and Yankee Clipper. His compositions have been featured on PBS programs documenting the Pioneers and the Mormon Battalion. Mark has an independent label called Honeybee recordings with many CD's to their credit. He joins Idlewild on the fiddle and Hurdy Gurdy, as a long time friend and mentor. Steve Keen could be called everyone's favorite side man, as he plays in many bands throughout the region. He is an adjunct professor of Keyboards at the University of Utah, and a member of the Klezbros (Jewish traditional Music) and the Steve Keen Trio. (Jazz ensemble) Steve has joined Idlewild the last few years and plays the Button Accordion. Marion Carter plays the Tenor Recorder and Clarinet, and joining us is her husband Barry Carter on guitar, Bodhran, and Djembe. They perform together as the duo Inish and have their own independent label as well. They have been featured in many prominent concerts and festivals throughout the region as well. Our current CD's are 1. "Idlewild" a band album 2. "The Song of Fionula" Dave and Carol duo 3. "Blarney Pilgrim" a band album 4. "The Wild Geese" Scott and Dave duo 5. "Black Oak" Dave solo mountain dulcimer 6. "The Birds of Rhiannon" Carol and Dave duo 7.
