Improvisational Native American Flute Meditations for Healing and Meditation. 5 MP3 Songs WORLD: Native American, NEW AGE: Meditation Details: Richard is a Reiki Master/Teacher and a Spiritual Sound Healer. He is a member of the International Native American Flute Association and the Sound Healers Association. Raven's Road is a more traditional Native American style music than his other CDs, using a shaman's drum, rattle, and didgeridoo with the flute. Ravens are the gatekeepers to the void of Spirit where there is no form or structure, but fluidity and constant change. It is said that people who carry Raven medicine also carry a heavy responsibility to Spirit. It as if these people have come into this Earth walk in order to help others break through old paradigms and belief systems into a new, more expanded awareness of reality. Raven is also the symbol of changes in consciousness, of levels of awareness and of perception. He is the carrier of healing energy from distances. PRAYER TO THE RAVEN Raven of darkest color Fly into the void of my inner self. Reveal my hidden truths and fears. Bring to me the messages Of healing and prayer, and Show me the hearts and minds of others So I may help them find Healing, Peace and Understanding.
