

Mp3 Sat Nirmal Kaur Khalsa - Jaap Sahib

DOWNLOAD HERE

Traditional Sikh/Punjabi music with a modern, western upbeat and Spanish Guitar 2 MP3 Songs WORLD: Asian, NEW AGE: Meditation Details: This new musical version of Guru Gobind Singh's Jaap Sahib is unlike any other. With the accompaniment of a Spanish guitar, this powerful poem and mantra reaches beyond all cultures and religions, joining us together in one universal prayer to usher in the Aquarian Age and bring peace to the earth, hope to the hopeless, strength to the weak and compassion to all living creatures. The Jaap Sahib was composed by Guru Gobind Singh (the 10th and last Sikh Master) in 1685 at the age of 19. Jaap means to utter or chant, and Guru Gobind Singh's Jaap Sahib is comprised of 199 verses, containing 950 descriptive names of the Formless Divine Being. Sometimes he describes God in negative terms defining what He is not, and other times he beautifully exalts the positive attributes of the One. Guru Gobind Singh embodied kindness and courage, meditation and action in one amazing man the likes of whom the world has not witnessed before or after. Ajai Alai is contained in the Jaap Sahib as the 2nd to last section and is added as a separate track on this CD for a special 11 minute meditation. Ajai Alai is a mantra of peace and healing. It has the power to break through all blocks and negativity. The vocals and musical accompaniment on this CD will bring ease and joy to learning and singing Jaap Sahib. For an English translation of Jaap Sahib, go to sikhnet Biography of the Artists: 1. Vocal: Sat Nirmal Kaur Khalsa is a business executive and a certified teacher of Kundalini Yoga as well as a minister of Sikh Dharma. She has been a student of Yogi Bhajan since 1973 and has traveled extensively, teaching kundalini yoga to business managers, students, children and teens. Sat Nirmal is a accomplished musician, studying piano, viola and voice since the age of 5. She has learned the Sikh traditional music, gurbani kirtan, and has participated in kirtan programs world wide. 2. Vocal: Sangeet Kaur Khalsa is a native of Toronto, where she studied and sang opera and concert repertoire, and was a member of the Festival Singers of Canada for many years. Since 1986 she has made her home in New Mexico, where she has a busy career as a speech-language pathologist in the public schools. For the past twenty-something years she has been composing, singing, and producing spiritual music from the Indian Sikh tradition -- music designed to open the heart and expand the consciousness. 3. Guitar and Keyboard: Steve Chavez has received several New Mexico Hispano music awards including: Male Vocalist of the Year, Gospel song of the year, traditional folk song, vocal duo, and engineer/producer of the year. Hes been writing, arranging, performing and recording music for more than thirty years. Currently Steve produces and engineers numerous projects for various bands and artists at his recording studio in Espanola New Mexico. He continues to perform and record as a solo artist. 3. Tablas: Siri Chand Singh Khalsa was born into the Sikh religion 26 years ago. He grew up with the sounds of gurbani kirtanand was educated in India, where he quickly learned the art of playing tablas. Siri Chand has played all over the world, including the Akal Takhat in Amritsar India; Keshgar Sahib. Searches:jaap saahib

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: