

General Partnership Contract By Musiccontracts101.com

DOWNLOAD HERE

An agreement between two or more parties. This contract states the name of the partnership, principle character of the business, location of the partnership, and percentages of contributions and profits/losses of each partner involved. This is the perfect contract to use when two or more parties decide to start a record label, publishing company, production company, promotion company, management company, put together a compilation CD, or any other type of partnership.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: