This book was absolutely warming to the soul. Love does not need perfection as most people seem to look for someone perfect. I was always taught dont look for someone you can live with, but find someone you cant live without. That was my take away of this book. When each appeared to go their separate ways they still felt each other to the ends that each was willing to do whatever necessary to make it work, change jobs, change venue, get help, whatever it took because they really could not live without each other. Nice.
