Afraid Youll Look Foolish on the Golf Course? Dont Know a Wood from an Iron? Want to Get In on One of the Fastest Growing Sports Around? Learn How to Golf and Impress Your Friends! Dear Beginning Golfer, Are you intimidated when a friend or colleague asks YOU to play a game of golf? Do you suspect that business deals are being made on the course while you hang out in the Club House? Are you ashamed that you dont know a bunker from a green? Are you wondering what is making everybody so obsessed with this game? Dont despair everyone started out just like you. Unfortunately if youve come late to the game you may feel your performance will embarrass you in front of your friends (or worse your boss!). While golf is typically learned by adults you may feel ashamed to admit your lack of skill and prefer to avoid the game altogether. Dont miss out on the fun and networking enjoyed by golfers Get on the Course and Give it a Swing! But before you do that (and risk embarrassing yourself) why not start out on the right foot with a quick overview of the sport, how its played and how to make the right decisions (and shots) that make you look like an old pro? Like any other game rules and skill, and other variables, will affect your performance. Have you ever seen cartoons about a frustrated golfer? Be prepared golf is as much a mental game as a physical one. Secret tips to control your frustration can give you an immense advantage, even over experienced players who let it get the better of them. What about clubs? Which one is used for which shot? Making smart decisions is what wins the game and thats why pro golfers have experienced caddies to give them advice on the course - but you dont have that. An overview of clubs and when to use them will show others youve got the know-how! Are you playing for fun or are you trying to fit into the crowd? Many business men and women enjoy networking over a game of golf. This is not the time to let nerves get to you or worry about how to get out of the bunker, what you really need is the Beginners Guide to Playing Golf Ready to step onto the course with your head held high?
