By The Time You've Finished Reading And Applying The 10 Easy Steps You WON'T Be == Paying for services you don't need, don't want - and perhaps don't even know about! == Picking the wrong domain name out of blind ignorance. == Still intimidated by the most feared task of all - a vital everyday task that almost every person who didn't learn about computers during childhood are still likely to find most confusing, even though they've grown competent in other areas. == Paying huge fees to a web designer or buying web design software you find too complex to use. By The Time You've Finished Reading And Applying The 10 Easy Steps You WILL Be == Savvy and comfortable with the internet, able to perform all the standard everyday functions most commonly used and needed. == Admiring your new intelligently planned and optimized website. == Ready to do business and attract other internet users to your site. == Ready for the Search Engine spider bots to find and index your site. == Able to explain to others what FTP is, how it works, and show them how to easily use it. == Basking in the satisfaction of having done it all yourself, like a pro. And speaking of getting your new site up and running you won't have to be a web design genius, either. Nor will you have to pay astronomical fees to a web designer. Yet you'll have your site up on the net, perfectly planned and functioning in just a couple of hours (perhaps less!) And you will have no problem uploading files yourself. How is this possible?

'Internet Basics 101 In 10 Easy Steps' Teaches You Exactly What You Need To Know - And Doesn't
