License: Master Resale Rights The Complete Info-Product Creation Toolkit is far more than just a "How To" guide - it's a complete resource that shows you, step by step, how to think up high-demand information products, create them from scratch and then market them the right way. Each of these steps are really crucial to your success with info-products. Above all, the toolkit comes with several highly valuable built-in resources that you can download from inside - premium eBooks & software that you absolutely must have in order to produce & market information products successfully. These resources would cost you a small fortune if you were to purchase them separately. That's what separates this all-inclusive toolkit from the other "How To Create Info-Products" books out there. You see, most "how-to create information products" eBooks have affiliate links to the same/similar products that you're getting with the toolkit for free, so you have to purchase them separately (giving the authors back-end commissions and leaving you somewhat out of pocket). There is simply nothing out there that competes with The Complete Info-Product Creation Toolkit if you're looking for a step-by-step, take you by the hand blueprint for creating, selling and profiting from your very own information products.
