Webpage Visitors Traffic Course What A Broke, Un-Employed 27-Year-Old and My Date With Drew Barrymore Can Teach You About Creating Endless Leads, Generating Sales and Making MONEY ONLINE Learn How to Reach Over 1 BILLION Net Users Globally - All Exactly One Click Away From Your Website (1-Click Away From Spending Money With YOU) Why should you care about Brian... especially since you have no idea who he is? Because he accomplished something that can go down in the history books as one of the greatest marketing campaigns of all time ... And he did it at age 27, broke, un-employed, with no experience and acting like a bumbling idiot along the way. You think landing that job youve been pursuing is tough? Frustrated with trying to sell your new info-product? Or are you worn out because you cant seem to sell anyone on joining you in your network marketing downline? Try Brians shoes on for size... Try going from un-known and un-employed to landing a date with Drew Barrymore. (More about that in the video below). What Brian did well (by accident) is the same thing that could land you better career opportunities, more dates, more joint venture partners, more leads, and a lot more sales... effective use of the web for marketing. Jay Abraham and Ted Nicholas, two men who each get paid a hefty compensation for their advice and have played a part in billions of dollars worth of sales... both constantly harp on the fact that the single most profitable skill to develop is marketing. ... Because it applies to nearly every part of your lifes goals: finding the right partner, getting the right job, achieving your sales goals, making more money ... It can also help in attaining a 2-decade old dream of sitting down for a date with a Hollywood superstar. My Date With Drew is one of the best case studies of a marketing campaign (even though its a documentary) because it shows that pretty much any goal can be attained if the message for the target audience is presented right and communicated effectively. And the internet gives 1 Billion + users worth of opportunity to get that message right! Just a fraction of those individuals even seeing an offer can mean an incredible amount of wealth. ... The Same Skill Helped Regular-Guy But Extra-Ordinary Marketer, John Reese, Create $1,000,000 in 24 Hours This is probably old news to you, but the knowledge of online advertising (ie: traffic generation) is also why this one-man show was able to generate an impressive amount of sales in just one day: $1 MILLION in 24 hours. The skeptics will

quickly say Nonsense! How is that even possible?Nothing to be skeptical about. If you had something that 1 in 200 people would happily pay $1000 for ... and you could show 200,000 people an offer for that something ... thats 1000 sales youd receive, each for $1000 = $1,000,000. And, if you showed those 200,000 your offer all in the same day, youd also produce $1 million in sales within 24 hours, right? What you should now be asking is how can I start learning at least a FRACTION of what this John Reese guy knows about traffic generation. I pick on John Reese because hes a bit of a celebrity with online marketers ever since his publicity stunt. But there are THOUSANDS of men and women who earn very impressive incomes online because they learned how to funnel attention who youd never hear about. If you can grab the attention of just a portion of the 1 Billion + internet users worldwide long enough to present an introduction to your offer, you too can get one step closer to your income goal. So how can YOU start learning proper, ethical and effective online advertising (or traffic generation) techniques? Be Careful Who You Take Flying Lessons From! My good friend and co-creator of How Can I Get Visitors To My Website: Traffic Generation Techniques Explained, Doug Hudiburg, runs a website called DailyMarketingAcesthat features snippets of online business building tips from dozens of contributors.
