Traffic Equalizer - With Source Code "Discover A Little-Known 'SYSTEM' You Can Use (Right Now) To Get TOP Rankings In MAJOR Search Engines Like Google, Yahoo, AOL and MSN!" It Doesn't Matter If You're An Inexperienced "Newbie" - This Brand New Highly Targeted Traffic Generator Is GUARANTEED To Work... No Matter WHAT You Happen To Be Promoting! Date: February 26, 2011 From: Jeff Alderson

Dear Friend, Like so many others, I came online with high expectations. I wanted to earn a comfortable living. But no matter how hard I worked or what type of marketing and promotion I implemented, I always found myself facing the same old brick wall... My websites STILL weren't receiving enough traffic! More specifically, they weren't receiving enough TARGETED traffic. And knowing that I couldn't achieve financial success without that one key ingredient, I became obsessed about locating the "perfect" traffic-generating method. For almost a year, I tried every gimmick, every system, every program. If some new and innovative method was released, I jumped on it. Unfortunately, there were too many instances where the results were far less than what was anticipated. Plus, there were advanced traffic methods that produced good results but were too technical, too complicated, or too time-consuming for the average person to implement properly. I was becoming more and more frustrated, mainly because I was merely looking for a traffic-generating system that... * is simple enough for even an inexperienced beginner to use * is effective enough to impress even the most advanced marketer * works 100 no matter WHAT product or website is being promoted * doesn't wipe out your credit card, life savings, and retirement fund * drives tons of targeted traffic EVEN if you put in very little effort * keeps on working for as long as the Internet exists * utilizes search engine optimization techniques that ALWAYS work Now I ask you... is that REALLY too much to expect from a system that generates traffic? I certainly didn't think so! So rather than give up (as someone who wasn't obsessed might easily have done), I took hold of the only other option I had available. I decided to create my OWN traffic-generating formula. Of course, the basic concept was already out there. All I really had to do was gather up bits and pieces of all the most effective methods and then combine those ingredients into one, easy-to-use system. And to tell you the truth, what I wound up with worked even better than I had hoped for. In fact, on one of my websites alone, the amount of traffic increased from a measly 900 unique visitors a month to well over 27,000! But even THAT wasn't good enough. I wanted a software product that would allow me to perform the same traffic-generating formula automatically and in record time. WITHOUT being overly technical or complicated. The end result? Not only did that software become a reality, I decided it was WAY too valuable and effective to keep it all to myself. :-)

The Traffic Equalizer Advantage... With Traffic Equalizer... * You're guaranteed to attract the "exact" viewers YOU happen to be looking for. * There's no way you can mess things up! Do it half-heartedly and you'll STILL generate tons of highly targeted traffic. * In only a matter of minutes, you can optimize pages for 50 keywords or 5,000. It's entirely up to you.

And get this... unlike other Search Engine Optimization techniques, you NEVER have to choose between keywords or labor over which ones will be the most effective. Simply throw any related keywords into the mix and let them ALL work for you. After all, you'll be able to create 1,000's of keyword optimized pages with the touch of a button. So why NOT take advantage of each and every related keyword? Just think of the kind of traffic you would enjoy... Assuming you used 1,000 keywords and each one brought in 25 visits a month (a VERY conservative number), your website would ultimately receive 25,000 unique and highly targeted viewers on a monthly basis! The equation is simple... We all know what it takes to be successful online. You have to generate an unlimited supply of targeted traffic. And without it? Every other marketing and promotion effort you implement will fall far short of your goals. But you know what? Once you start generating massive amounts of traffic, every OTHER online opportunity will become available to you. * When it comes to conducting business over the Internet, your first priority is (and always will be) to MAKE MONEY. And as long as you're attracting plenty of targeted traffic, you'll automatically generate a lot more sales. * When other businesses and websites see the incredible volume of unique visitors you're receiving, they'll do everything they possibly can to hitch a ride on YOUR traffic wave! * With tons of traffic to your credit, you can start cutting the kind of deals that benefit YOU the most! That means forming lucrative joint ventures and business partnerships, getting paid to advertise. You name it! * Ever put a website on hold because you weren't sure there was a market to support it? Now you can create whatever you want, build a site around whatever product you like. Traffic Equalizer will take care of driving all the targeted traffic you need! * You know those "special" offers like certain affiliate programs, exclusive products, and pay-to-click search boxes - ones that are ONLY available to sites that receive "x" amount of monthly traffic? Now YOU can take advantage of each and every one of
