DOWNLOAD HERE

Time to get serious ... "Who Else Wants An Easy, Step-By-Step Recipe To Literally Pump Out $7 Reports And Feed Your PayPal Account A Steady Stream Of Cash Deposits?" Kevin cooks up another fantastic product. "What if you could easily crank out a $7 report in 2 1/2 hours and make hundreds - even thousands - of dollars from it?" "What if the recipe only cost you $7?" Kevin Riley Dear Fellow Entrepreneur, Let's get right to the point! Selling a $7 report is a heck of a lot easier than trying to flog $47 e-books. Check You don't need a mile-long sales letter to convince your prospect to buy. After all, spending $7 is not a major buying decision. Check Most people can easily afford your report. They spend more than that on a quick lunch. Check You rarely get returns. C'mon, it's only $7! As long as you give your customer 20-30 pages of useful information, they're happy as clams. But, it's only $7! How are you gonna make money selling something for just $7? Don't fall into the trap of believing everything the "big buck gurus" have been spouting. Some would have you believe that you're a fool to sell anything for under $97. But, let me ask you this. Who makes more money? A) The elegant steakhouse - selling a 16-oz charcoal broiled Filet Mignon for $49.95? B) McDonald's - selling an ordinary Big Mac for $3.29? Full marks if you selected B. The reason small price makes big money? Volume! McDonald's sell millions of Big Macs every day. Imagine how many $7 reports you will sell. So ... think about this carefully! What would you rather see? Scenario 1: The occasional $47 sale comes trickling into your PayPal account. Sometimes, you wait for days for that happy occasion. Scenario 2: A constant stream of $7 deposits pours into your PayPal account. So much so that, if you have a "You've got money!" alert on your computer, you have to shut it off to get some peace and quiet. Yeah, but! Sure, $7 reports take less work -- no 300-page tomes to produce -- but, you still have to create a product. Even a 30-page report leaves some people cold, because: Oh no! You have no idea what to write about. What will sell well? Where do you get ideas? Oh no! You feel daunted even organizing a small report. How do you arrange the information? Oh no! You hate writing. How do you start that first paragraph? How do you get your writing to flow from one point to another? Wouldn't it be great ... if you had a packet of Instant Product Mix? You simply added water and created a winning product that you can start selling tomorrow? Well ... OK ... that's asking for too much! But, how about the very next best thing? How about a simple, step-by-step recipe that pumps out a ready-to-sell report in just 2 1/2 easy hours? Actually, 2 1/2 hours if you take a lot of coffee breaks, play a few online games, chat with your friends, and take your dog for a walk. Recipe For Quick And Easy Product Creation Yes! With this easy-to-follow recipe, you'll start right now ... and, by tomorrow, you'll be selling your $7 report -- and watching those PayPal deposits come dumping into your account. From the Product Creation Labs at Mission: Make Money Online comes the simple and "Oh, so easy!" guide "Recipe For Quick And Easy Product Creation". Quickly and simply put together a great report that you can start selling immediately ... you'll be making money in just a few hours from now! Check Grab money-making ideas from a fantastic resource that can be used for any niche market. Use your "Super Idea Grabber" printout worksheet to easily build a list of profitable ideas that will have your "You got money!" alert buzzing constantly. Check Get your hands on all the answers to create a winning report that puts smiles on your customers' faces ... and cash in your PayPal account. Check Map your ideas on paper with a simple exercise that totally organizes your report. Check Create a smooth-flowing report that your readers devour - leaving them wanting more of your reports. Easily string all your notes together with the dynamic sentences on your "Flow Rite" printout. Check Impress your customers with a highly-polished report. With your "Professional PDF" printout in hand, you easily build a professional work of art with a title page, copyright notice, disclaimer, headers, and footers. First impressions really do count. And, that's it! You've created your first $7 report. It's all ready for uploading to your website ... and it will start making you money the minute you get the word out. It's that easy! In the next few days, you're going to sell 100 ... 300 ... 500 of these little reports. Imagine that! Even at the lowest number of sales, that's $700 - for what? 2 1/2 hours of simply following a recipe. That means ... you just made at least $200/hour! And that's just in the first few days - wait until the viral sales kick in. And, with your recipe in hand, you can do this again tomorrow ... and the next day ... and the next. Now, you have to ask yourself two serious questions: 1. Are you willing to spend 2 1/2 hours of what can only be called about the easiest bit of work you'll ever do in your life, to make at least $700? 2. Are you willing to spend $7 to make at least 100x that much? Check Yes! That's all this fantastic, step-by-step recipe is gonna cost you ...$7. And ...
