I knew I had put this book in good hands when I talked to the person who wrote it. After all, where else can you get amazing advice but from someone whos been there and realized success? When I contacted her to write this book, heres what she told me. When my mother and I decided to start selling our crafts at the most popular fairs we could find, we were a little apprehensive. We didnt have a book like this to guide us along. We had a great idea for unique, easy-to-tie scarves and decided to join our post-Thanksgiving craft show held the two days after Turkey Day! We figured, well, the big stores make a profit, maybe we can too! We were surprised beyond our beliefs! We spent $400 for the fabric to make the scarves, and four days sewing the scarves. When the show was over and we counted our money, and were completely shocked to find we had over $6,000 in our cash box. First, we freaked out that we had so much money and didnt really notice it. We were so very busy both days, we didnt pay that much attention to making bank drops and such. We sneaked to the car very carefully and drove like heck to get home and figure out our profit. $6,000 Cash Box $ 400 Expenses $ 40 Constructing Product: 4 hrs. @ $10/hr $ 50 Booth Space $5,510 Net Profit Thats nearly $3,000 a piece for two days work! WOW! We were happy wouldnt you be? Well, Wouldnt You Be? Of course you would. My author has made a great living selling her crafts for a tidy profit for years. Thats why I wanted her to write this book from an experts point of view! She did it and so can you! You can find all sorts of advice and information about how to make money selling your crafts. In fact, there are all sorts of how-to guides out there that claim they will make you a professional with just a little know-how. Were not like those other people. What We Tell You Actually Works!
