RV Life Wave Of The Future Today's motorhomes or recreational vehicles have all the comforts of home. If your wallet can afford it, they come with plasma TVs, washers and dryers, ceramic tile floors, granite countertops, and with spaces that are professionally designed. When you are considering the purchase of a new motorhome there are some of the same considerations you have when purchasing a new car. Remember, a dealer can take advantage of an uneducated customer. Do your homework. Know how much you should be paying before you visit the dealership. Ask to see the MSRP (manufacturer's suggested retail price) for the vehicle. Remember, dealers receive nice incentives from manufacturers, so they have a 15 to 35 mark-up. A lot of dealers are your best friends while you're buying the motorhome. Once they've sold you the motorhome they don't want to be bothered. An RV hire also grants you the freedom to see your chosen destination at your own pace, rather than being at the mercy of group tours. You can choose your own places of interest, map your own itinerary, and function on your own schedule. Bus and train schedules mean nothing to do when you're at the wheel of an RV. Want to spend a few extra hours at a location you hadn't expected to find interesting? No problem. Your vehicle and mobile hotel room are ready to go when you are. So, if you're thinking of taking a scenic road trip, consider using an RV. Hire one for this vacation and you might find yourself buying one in the future. Above all, REMEMBER... This does not have to be a HIGH COST decision! You can get into RVing in a 34 foot used Class A motorhome for under $10,000. But SERIOUSLY... Are you a bit concerned that you cannot do this? Do you worry that you don't know enough about the RV industry, overall... or aren't confident enough to take on some step-by-step projects that would make even a used RV, a real solution for you? Well, quit fussing right now! Think For One Moment What The Information In This Book Will Do For Your Self Confidence and Actual MOTORHOME-SAVVY Abilities, Once You Realize That You Don't Have to Be a College Professor In Order to Make Your Plans For Independence, And Put Your New RV, Belongings, And Family In A Superior Place!
