Discover The Way To Automatically Track The Progress Of Any Website Promotional Effort With Site Page Tracker... Guaranteed! If you're like me, the long road to ranking high in the search engines can get discouraging at times. Checking web hits is not a good indication of initial progress toward promoting a new site. I submitted a unique article to over 200 article directories last week only to get a few hits to my site. Sound familiar? I'm in it for the long haul, but it's still tough to hang in there when all I can track are web hits and keyword ranking. Number of Pages Indexed and Number of Backlinks are better stats to measure, especially at the beginning of a site's life. But up until now, these stats have only been accessible manually or five functions deep into some high-priced complicated SEO software. That's all changed! Site Page Tracker uses a PHP script to accomplish its magic. Setup is a snap, and as you can see from the picture above, your stats are saved each time the software runs. You can even copy & paste into a spreadsheet to chart your data. Site Page Tracker installs on your own domain and can track as many domains as desired from a single installation. Daily updates can be forwarded to you by email automatically. In addition to pages and backlink stats, you can also track how many times your articles have been published. Simply enter the unique article title or author to start tracking. Finally, let me share with you what one person recently wrote me after using Site Page Tracker for the first time to track his add link success: " Thank you so much for one of the handiest monitoring tools I've ever used. Certainly one of the easiest. It's great to get DAILY EMAILS telling me how many backlinks I've gained or lost for my sites in each of the big 3 search engines. But what I've especially appreciated lately (now that I am into article marketing in a bigger way) is to be able to see how many ARTICLE listings of mine are "out there". When I'm writing the article, I check Google to be sure to give each article a unique title -- then enter that title into Site Page Tracker and follow its progress day by day. It's neat to have the option to toggle between either seeing the current totals for each article OR the day-by-day figures. A mighty handy piece of kit. Recommended without reservation.
