The Business Directory allows users to browse and search for businesses in their area. The listings are detailed with features, photos, descriptions, ratings, reviews, contact information and driving directions linked to MapQuest. Users can also open an account and save their favorite businesses to their online address book. Businesses can also list their businesses. After a business has registered, they are able to select and buy a package depending on the length of time they would like their business to be listed. Payment can be done via PayPal or 2Checkout and registration is automated. The business will receive a few emails - 10 days before his account will expire, 5 days, 1 day. 24 hours after his account expiration date, all his listings and his account will be deleted automatically.
