These templates will enable you to easily create websites around particular niches. Some of them are broader topics, such as "engineering" and can be easily adapted for many sub-niches (like electrical engineering, mechanical engineering, etc.). Others are much more specific, like "model railroads", for a quick and easy way to zoom in on a profitable industry. We've covered 100 topics! Yes I know that's a lot, and no these are not any of the same templates you've seen floating around the internet. These are all NEW! Some template sellers may advertise hundreds of templates, but their customers are surprised to find that there are only a limited number of topics, with several template variations for each topic. That means there's a far smaller chance of getting the topics you care about. For this collection we've covered 100 topics. Not 20 topics repeated five times. I'm talking about 100 different topics. That means you'll have plenty to choose from, and there's a good chance there will be some topics that you are interested in building sites around. Let's take a look at some of the topics covered in this collection... # Angels # Roses # Mold and Mildew # Gerbils # Singapore # Livestock # Amplifiers # Fog Machines # Zip Codes # Wildlife # Dragons # Wind # Radiation # SIM Cards # Autographs # Golf Carts # Logging # Orphans # Skateboarding # Pointe (Dance) # Avalanches # Glass Blowing # Asbestos # Smokers # Drapes # Paper Dolls # Chandeliers # Giving Blood # Press Kits # Malaria # Fear # Pensions # Friction # Brownies # CPR # Jellyfish # Flutes # Lace # Coats # Slippers # Christmas Trees # Water Filters # Blu-ray # Onions # China # Coupons # Lawn Mowers # Upholstery # Binoculars # Life Jackets # Henna # Snowboarding # Gun Safety # HVAC # Rubber Stamping # Dishes # SAT Exam # Taxidermy # Zoos # Ireland # Self-esteem # Shakes # Tea Sets ...AND keep in mind that these are private label templates, which means you can modify them for ANY topic you wish to use! Again I want to emphasize that these are NOT the same "AdSense sites" that you've seen circulating around the web. I've seen some of the other stuff out there, and most of it ain't pretty! It is obvious that some of those marketers either don't know a lot about AdSense, or they're outsourcing to a cheap overseas team that doesn't know how to properly monetize a site with AdSense or any other revenue source for that matter. I know what you're thinking... come on, aren't you being a bit harsh on the competition? I don't think so. Most of the templates I've seen are poorly optimized for making money. They're using the wrong ad blocks, or they've got them in the wrong places, or they don't have enough of them. I've even seen some so-called "AdSense Templates" that only have one ad block per page! Let's take a look at some major differences between other templates and my templates... you will find the various types of templates for each niche: HTML, HyperVRE, WordPress, phpBB, XSitePro.
