Are You Ready To Say "Good Bye" To Procrastinating For Good? Do you procrastinate in more areas than just work? If so, there's a good chance it'll end up costing you a lot of cash (page 16). That's reason enough to get a handle on your bad habit right now! Let alone the fact that it's keeping you from reaching your goals. The office can be a tough place to fight off procrastination. Especially when there are others trying to get you to slack off with them. My report will teach you how to put a stop to that (and without being rude). See page 32 to find out how to get other procrastinators to leave your office without saying one word. Not even by saying "get out!" The truth is there are people at work who'd rather take you down with them (by keeping you from working) than go that route themselves. And you can put a stop to it! (Page 23) My guide teaches you how to say "NO!" to friends, family, significant others and co-workers who compete for your time. And most importantly, how to get yourself to feel like saying "no" is the right thing to do. If you have trouble starting a project before the last minute, my report will be your secret weapon for fighting off procrastination. 50 pages full of (101) tips, tricks, and tactics for eliminating your bad habit from your life.
