

Home Computer Security : 15 Steps To Pc Security

DOWNLOAD HERE

What you dont know can hurt you! How to rid yourself of unwanted programs that can destroy your computer! You dont have to be a computer geek to learn how to protect your PC! If you want to learn everything you need to know about securing your PC from dangerous malware, spyware and adware you are in the right place! Have you noticed your computer slowing down even if you have minimal programs running? Has your web surfing slowed down to a snails pace, even though you have a very fast broadband connection? If you have, the chances are that you have spyware or adware running in the background without your knowledge. Not only do these programs slow down your system they also send out information that you dont want sent and especially to places where you dont want it sent to! If you dont take control and do it fast, you can become the unwilling victim of sabotage, spying and even scarier identity and credit card theft! Unless you take control soon and make sure your computer is clean, your pc will appear to have a mind of its own. 15 Steps to PC Security is just what the pc doctor ordered. Take a look at all you will learn: Step One - How secure is your home computer Learn what types of attacks you can expect. Step Two - All About Viruses Discover how to identify and rid yourself of these destructive programs. Step Three - Password Protection How to protect your passwords. Step Four - Back Up Important Files How and why this is crucial. Step Five - Should You Have a Firewall? Discusses the pros and cons of firewall protection. Step Six - Do You Need a File Encryption Program? No longer just for big businesses. Step Seven - What Are Patches and Do You Need Them? Making sure you know all you need to know about using them. Step Eight - Beware of Opening eMail Attachments Why and how to make sure they are safe before opening. Step Nine - What You Should Know About Phishing What you MUST know about this lethal practice. Step Ten - Safe Practices When Downloading and Installing Programs. Are these safe practices? Step Eleven - Instant Messaging Dos and Donts When a friend is not a friend. Step Twelve - Setting Up a SAFE Home Network How to safely link all your computers. Step Thirteen - Keeping Your Children Safe Online Internet predators are out to lure your children. Step Fourteen - What to Do If Your Computer Is Attacked Getting yourself out of trouble. Step Fifteen - How to Stay Informed Once your pc is clean, keep it that way! An unprotected pc is a sitting duck for Internet predators and destructive programs. This garbage is everywhere online and no one is immune unless you take the correct steps. The odds are high that you already have it eating away at your computer now and dont know it. Once they take over you hand over control. The bad news is that you have probably gotten them, even from sites you trust! You may have dozens of these parasites on your computer right now!

The good news is that 15 Steps to PC Security will give you everything you need to boot these programs right out of your online world. And, youll learn how to prevent them from returning. Learn how to make the necessary changes and protect yourself and your family. Best of all you learn how to eliminate them and protect yourself in the future. Grab your copy now and in minutes youll be on the road to recovery with 15 Steps to PC Security!

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

Home Computer Security : 15 Steps To PC Security