More than likely you found this page as a result of buying my Article Domination Method ebook or getting your hands on my Article Writers Cheat Sheet. If that's the case, I certainly don't have to convince you how important aggressive Article Marketing is, because you already know! In both works, I reveal proven methods to help even novice writers churn out quality articles like a seasoned pro. Even so, you still have to find an effective way of getting your articles into the hands of every article directory that'll take them, and this is where many lose hope. The truth is, article submission can be exhausting unless you have a way to automate the process... This is where Article Submitter comes in! Order now Article Submitter is a desktop application that connects to the Article Directory sites via your internet connection. You simply preload the article information into Article Submitter once, and let it take care of the rest. It will log-in to each directory you've selected and pre-populate (fancy for fill-in) all the necessary fields automatically. Once you've reviewed the submission for accuracy, you simply click the appropriate button to submit. Article Submitter will automatically connect to the next directory you've chosen and the process will be repeated until your article is submitted to each and every directory you've selected. Rather than write some long, boring salesletter, I've decided to do a little show- and-tell. Get it today Submitting articles with Article Submitter is fast and easy. In five short steps, Article Submitter will distribute your articles to the far-corners of the net. Here's a visual guide which will explain the process... Article Submitter will automatically connect to the first directory you've chosen, log-in to your account and populate (fill-in) all article fields with your saved information. Once complete, you click the Next Site button and Article Submitter will connect to the next directory you've selected. Using Article Submitter, you can submit to each directory in about a minute's time. This is a huge savings as it would typically take five minutes or more if you had to submit to each directory manually. While there are a number of ways/tools you can use to submit articles, Article Submitter software is easy to use and the price can't be beat! Get Article Submitter Now Tags: seo
