Introducing: "250 Jazz Patterns" - the new jazz aid Hello! My name is Evan Tate and I'm a professional saxophonist and instructor with over 20 years of experience. I am currently on the jazz faculty of the University of Music and the Performing Arts in Munich, Germany, an Endorser for Julius Keilwerth Saxophones , and host of the "First and Only Saxophone Workshop on the Web as a Podcast" - The SaxTips Podcast . I have created "250 Jazz Patterns" in order to pass on to YOU the techniques I have learned from my instructors and have taught to my more than 100 students over the past 20 years! You too can learn to master jazz improvisation systematically and faster than ever before! You're listening to your favorite players and you're wishing that you can play at least nearly as good as they are and do a lot of practice to get there. But your efforts don't seem to get you any closer. This book will help you!
