Did you know that having streaming video on your web site increases sales and conversion than just text and pictures? When a consumer can see a 3-dimensional product it inspires more trust than just static pictures. Streaming video captivates your visitors' attention just as if you were there in person moving them to take the next action. Instant Video Creator offers you the ability to add streaming video on your web site without any special skills or having to use expensive equipment. Full MASTER Resale & Rebranding Rights A touch of live video will motivate your customers to take action now rather than skim through all the text and eventually click away to another web site. It provides an easy way for your visitors to quickly appreciate what you offer without going through the rigorous effort of doing a lot of reading. Instant Video Creator is a revolutionary new software that allows multiple users to create their videos under their own accounts. Not only can you use it to create just your own streaming videos, you can also start your own service where you charge a monthly fee to host such videos for your customers. What can you do with it?
