

The Chancellor's Bride - Kirsten Saell

Her love for two men could save their future. Her secrets could destroy them all. Recently re-elected Chancellor Collin sur-Gaerig is a rising star on the political scene, and everyone expects he'll soon be rewarded with an estate and title. He also has a dirty little secret: he's in love with his manservant, Harral. If anyone-especially the wife he's expected to take-discovers their affair, all his aspirations will go up in smoke. The mysterious woman he finds lying half-dead in the street is strong, beautiful, independent...and aroused when she catches him and Harral in a compromising position. As Aelis worms her way past their closely guarded defenses and into their bed, they realize she's the perfect match for both of them. But Aelis has a secret of her own, an ex-lover's blackmail scheme that could get them all killed. To save the men she's come to love, she's willing to sacrifice her own happiness, maybe even her life. Collin's not about to let that happen. For the first time in his life, he's willing to risk it all in order to have it all. Even if it means he could lose the man he's loved for years-and the woman they both want to love forever. Warning: This book contains explicit sex, including m/m and m/m/f; violence; bad language; financial irregularities; uneaten dessert; gratuitous invocation of various deities; and breakfast-table hijinks you're not likely to witness at your neighborhood IHOP.
