As Network Marketers, most of us have searched and searched for a simple yet effective way to "Clone" ourselves; knowing that if we could overcome the duplication problem we would reach the levels of success we ALL dream about in this business. The problem is that 95 of the people in a MLM business usually fail. The inability to duplicate, I believe, has a lot to do with it. Lets say the 95 failure rate is accurate for a minute... Im not the best at math, but that would mean that 5 of the people in this business are successful and some probably wildly successful? Its also likely that most of us are recruited into a program by someone in the 95 category. Now for those of us that want to join the ranks of the 5, its our job to sift through as many prospects as we can until we find other 5ers like us; people who want to work hard and build a long term residual income business.
