SLOT MACHINE OPT IN EMAIL COLLECTION SCRIPT Clever opt-in email collection cgi script which allows visitors to your site to play a virtual "slot-machine" to win a product or get a free membership to your website. Player can "warm-up" spinning the slot machine as many times as they want before spinning for real. Multiple security features allow you to prevent abusers from using bots or cheating the system. Requires real email address to collect prize. If you setup the slot machine for "products" you can also customize and link the slot machine images so visitors are looking at products from your site. When they click on one of the images they are taken to a special product information url. Great way to build targeted email lists from your visitors and great promotional tool.
