Sell Your Products Like Hot Cakes Transform Your Leads Into Paying Customers Build Your Downline At Warp Speed Rake In Mobs Of New Subscribers For Your Newsletter And Do It All On Autopilot ... Did you know that it could take up to 5 or more exposures to your offer before a prospect will finally make a purchase from you? What happens to all of the ones who only see it once? Are they slipping away or worse yet, going to your competitors and spending their money! You would be amazed by the number of marketers who are missing out on 60 or more of their sales, simply because they have no follow up system in place. But just any old system won't work. You need to have one that will help you build a relationship with your prospect. Why, because not only does it take exposure to make a sale, it takes trust and credibility. That is where having your own newsletter comes in. Let's go over some of the things having your own newsletter can do for your business. It will build your credibility Build respectability Create trust between you and your prospect Keep you in contact with your customers Make you an expert in your field Keep you in your prospects minds Promote your products or services Promote your affiliate programs Increase your sales I could go on, but I think you get the idea. We all know how important it is to build a list of contacts. We also know how much time it takes to follow up with them on a regular schedule. That is why so many of us don't do it. It takes hours of researching and writing. It gets tedious and boring week after week and pretty soon we skip an issue or two, then the next thing we know it's been a month since the last issue. There goes all that credibility and trust right out the window. What if I told you that you could in just a few short minutes be the publisher of your very own newsletter in the lucrative Home Business Niche! Yahoo Searches done in November 2005 "home business" 477786 You will be the author... Your newsletter will go out each and every week to your list of home business seekers full of articles tips and product recommendations that are fully customizable with your name, email, website and Clickbank ID. There is nothing better than a weekly newsletter to build a strong relationship with your prospects. Having your own newsletter will make you an expert in your field. It will help you build trust and loyalty with your readers. But that's not the best part. You will get the private label rights to the newsletter. That means it is all yours to send out as is. You are the author. You may edit it, change it or rearrange it. You can even break it up into smaller ecourses, post on your website or blog for extra content. It's all up to you. You're in control. With all the basic grunt work done for you the possibilities are endless. You can add your own style and flair. With a little bit of creativity you could even use the content inside to create more newsletters for different sites or even rewrite the articles to submit to directories. Plus you can easily plug in and promote your own products and services. That's the beauty of private label rights. The content is all yours to use it however you want to! I've made customizing your newsletters super easy. All you need to do is use the search feature in your favorite text editor to find the simple phrases I have inserted in the messages and replace them with your own information. It's so EASY my seven-year-old daughter can do it!!!! I'll provide you with complete instructions. It shouldn't take more than 15 minutes to customize your messages. Just think... With a few clicks of your mouse all 52 issues of your newsletter including the subject lines will be ready to load into your Auto Responder and start sending. It's all done for you! What could be easier than that? So tell me how many hours of your valuable time with that save you?
