Yes, you heard it right! 15 to 20 JV proposals are sent every week to prospective Joint Venture partners." "Why so many JV proposals?" A good and logical question. The reason is -- not all Joint Venture proposals get implemented. Your JV partners might be busy with their own promotions (of course, you always have to deal with busy marketers, don't you?) The Joint Venture 'terms' may not be agreeable to both the partners Your prospective JV partner may 'think' your product is not suitable for his prospects They may require more time to review your product before they consider any Joint Venture with you In the worst-case scenario, your prospective partner may NOT have received your JV proposal at all (due to spam filters) There are probably other reasons. What do you do now? "That's why I developed JV Professional..." JV Pro is a nifty software, capable of handling all your JV proposals from start to finish, proposal to implementation, idea to profits!
