Shh... Its Just A Little Bit Black Hat... Dont Be Cheated! Make Sure You Get The Commissions You Rightly Deserve Simply By Using This Smoking HOT Wordpress Plugin... Hide Affiliate Links on your Wordpress blog! EASY & FAST!!! Dear Friend, Being an affiliate can sometimes be fraught with pitfalls. The biggest pitfall of them all is getting your affiliate cookie on the prospects computer. For what ever unknown psychological reason, some people just dont like to think youre making any money out of them, even if youve done them a service. This is what happens. You spend a few hours writing up a big product review, and preselling the target product. Then you take the time out to create a link building campaign to get your review onto page 1 of Google. You start to see search traffic hitting your site, but then you dont make any commissions. Why? Simple. People can see your affiliate link and have decided they dont want you to get a cut. Not very nice I know, but it happens more often than you think. Even if you use a link cloaker, many people are now aware that all its doing is hiding an affilaite link, and will go to the extent of clearing their cookies before going to the destination site. Its getting harder and harder for an affilaite to make a commission nowadays. So whats the answer? Simple. Dont give them an affiliate link to click. Just give them a plain old direct link to the site, but make sure that before they click it, they already have your cookie on their computer. When they go through to the site and buy, you get registered as the affiliate, and you make that commission. Introducing NEW Wordpress plugin Hide Affiliate Links HAL is a Wordpress plugin that ensures your commissions by cookieing your visitors BEFORE they go to the destination site. They have no idea that by the time they hover your plain text link in your review, they ALREADY have your affiliate cookie on their PC. When they buy, you earn the commission. How Hide Affiliate Links?  HLA WP plugin works by allowing you to add your affiliate link to a Wordpress post or page within the Wordpress admin panel. When that post is viewed, your affiliate link is quietly and invisibly called in the background.  The visitor has no idea that this is happening - all they see is a plain text link that you add to your post. After all, theres no need to make your affiliate link publicly visible within the post any more, as the visitor to your blog has already been cookied. As far as theyre concerned, youve written a product review with no intent of financial gain, and theyre ready to go through to the site and buy.  HLA WP plugin is very easy to use. Just upload and activate the plugin, then go to the HLA settings page. Once youre there you can add your affiliate links to as many posts or pages as you like.  The visitor has no idea that this is happening - all they see is a plain text link that you add to your post. We recommend you use HLA responsibly. By that we mean only use one (or maybe two) affiliate links on each page or post. However... HLA can also be used in a black hat manner by stuffing as many cookies as you like on a single page, and its inevitable that some people will want to use it that way as the rewards are high. All we can say is, thats up to you. If you think its worth it, then go right ahead, but its your responsibility if you do. Okay? There is no doubt in my mind that HLA will give you a competitive edge over other affiliates, just dont go crazy and stuff too many cookies! P.P.P.S.
