From: Jason Waganer Date: Monday, 4:58 p.m. RE: How to Boost Your Article Marketing Results Without Suffering Duplicate Content Penalties

Dear Friend, If you're like me, you probably know the power of article marketing. No matter whether you're needing to build incoming links to a website for search engine optimization or you're simply trying to promote yourself or a product online, article marketing is one of the best ways to promote for free on the Internet. The problem with article marketing is that it takes so much time. There are so many steps to the process. Every time you write an article, there's a whole laundry list of things to do: * You have to research to know what keywords you want to target in your articles. * You have to find topics for your articles and then study to find content. * You have to write the actual article. * You have to come up with a good headline for your article. * You have to put together a signature block for your resource box. * You have to find article directories to submit to then start submitting articles. * Then You Have to Start all over again for the next article! This entire process can take hours for just one simple article. That's simply not good enough for me! Important Notice: Article Marketing Doesn't Have to be so Hard! There are ways you can improve your processes to put your Article Marketing Efforts in Overdrive!
