What Your Credit Report Really Says About You and How YOU Can Finally Take Charge of Your Credit Score and Financial Future! No Matter Your Current Credit Situation, It Is Vital That You Understand How Negative Information Gets Into Your Report and What You Can Do to Fix It.... Dear Friend, Do you know your current FICO score? How long has it been since you took a look at your credit report? If your answers to these two questions were: 1. Yes, I know my score, and 2. I've reviewed within the past 6 months - 1 year then you are already well ahead of the average person in terms of financial self-awareness! However, if you're like most of us, you probably didn't answer both of those questions with confidence. If that's the case, then you're not alone. The whole credit game is one big, confusing mess for most of us average folks. Even if you're already aware of the fact that past due payments, charge-offs, bankruptcies and similar occurrences constitute major blemishes on your report, you probably don't know about the smaller "gotchas!" affecting your score. You see, it's not just about how behind you are on payments or how much debt you have. It's also about: * How much debt you carry relative to your available lines of credit * How old your accounts are * The type of credit you rely upon most heavily * How much recent positive data the bureaus have on you ...and that's just the tip of the iceberg. The long and short of it is this: If you want better credit, you must learn how to play the game! The good news is that I can help you empower yourself with the information you need! Whether you want to build new credit or repair a bruised credit history, you'll discover the insider's information that will help you achieve those goals. Introducing... Credit Report Secrets!
