If you're struggling in your network marketing business, I totally understand your frustration. I remember the first time I stepped into a business opportunity meeting and I was filled with dreams - I couldn't wait to sign up right away. "Many Network Marketers Join An Opportunity But They Are Clueless About Prospecting, Making Money And Retaining Their Downline!" Let's be brutally honest with ourselves, here Running a business, even a low cost online business is serious business here. You don't expect to attend a course on Internet marketing and hope to become the next Dexter Yager or a network marketing superstar overnight - it's just an unrealistic expectation. Others have even more outrageous expectations from their uplines - often blaming them when things go wrong even after their uplines poured in their blood, sweat and tears into teaching and helping their downlines to succeed. This is just madness! Let me tell you the cold hard facts:

- How long did it take you to get a degree in college? - Do you expect to become a senior executive in 2 years? Of course not... - A degree is really costly! I'm sure you were prepared to pay the price, right? -
- How about your products? Do you expect them to sell themselves? - Even with your 9-5 job, there's no way you can recuperate your investment in your degree in a short period of time... so why expect the same in your network marketing business? No wonder people do not succeed in their business opportunities! It doesn't matter if it is a mature market or a ground floor opportunity... Their expectations are all wrong! But here's how you can avoid all the heartache! "There's A New Generation Of Marketing Methods Coming Up! Time To Ride The Waves!" If you are not prepared, you will be throwned to the network marketing sharks out there. Just look at some of the mistakes people make out there: - They do not choose the right company! - They do not know their marketing plan... - They sign up under an upline with virtually no leadership - They do not know how to generate leads - They do not know how to talk to their friends - They spend too much money on advertising And they often fail without knowing why! Why does this happen? Because they have no idea how the market has changed in the 21st century! Times have changed.
