You've purchased this product with full Master Resale and Redistribution Rights. Creating your own websites is no doubt getting easier to do. There are many ready made templates you can download and use. You can install Wordpress on your hosting account and start blogging in just a few minutes. You can even install Joomla and have your own content management website up and running in a few clicks. This is all fine if you only want to use ONE of those platforms on your website. But what if you wanted to use more than one? Lets say you have a website and wanted to add a Wordpress blog to it. This is quite easy to do but can you find a theme that looks the same as your site? I highly doubt it. Your only option is to pay a theme designer to create you a theme to match. The price? Almost certainly $100+ minimum.OUCH! Frustrating isn't it. Sometimes it will leave you literally tearing your hair out! You Get MRR Rights To The Themes Use Them For Yourself Give yourself a HUGE advantage over other site builders by having your own unique themes to use each month. You'll be laughing as you see them struggling to get results by using themes that thousands of other people are using. Brand Them And Give Them Away Simply add your name and/or website address to the bottom of the themes and give them away to as many people as you can. Just imagine the huge link popularity you will get! Start Your Own Membership Site You can start your own theme membership site and charge people each month to download the themes. Add Them As Bonuses To Your Existing Sites People love to get bonuses and giving these away could mean the difference between a sale or a click away from your site. Endless Possibilities The possibilities really are endless on how you can use these themes. You could easily start your own website empire and turn your site creation from a hobby into a lifestyle that you could only before ever dream of! Tags: mrr
