In nineteenth century Ireland, Erin Fitzpatrick was a bright young women with a scientific curiosity. But when her wealthy father died and his business partner is mysteriously named heir, she is arrested on trumped up charges and spirited away by ship before she can protest. Sold as a naked slave girl on the Barbary Coast, she must try to survive while learning the wicked sexual practices of her brutal Arab captors. Her life will be like a cork on a storm-tossed storm now, at the mercy of all she comes across, owned by cunning Arab, cruel English, and stern African masters, she will eventually end up in faraway America, as a white slave on a plantation.
