This is because it can lead to having someone whom you may want to change for the better, in the future. Aside from that, since desperation can cloud your judgment, you may end up with someone who will just make you more insecure. When you are dating a number of men or women, you might end up stressing yourself out. This is because multiple dating is never easy, and it needs you to become very organized. Although you may be enjoying the variety of persons multiple dating can offer to you, it is still less stressful when you are not always worrying about sending the wrong text messages or emails to the wrong person. Being yourself in dating can go a long way, especially if you are on a quest to finding a person to have a healthy relationship with. This is because when you wont be hiding anything from your date, you can be assured that he would be accepting you just the way you are, if your relationship grows.
