Fake referral Example: index.php is the generated php file. 001 is the offer you want to direct to anonymizeit.com/?yoursite.com/index.php?n=001 The link is usually put into the iframe. The referral will display as: anonymizeit.com/?yoursite.com/index.php Blank referral This will make it so your referral is blank and there will be no traces at all. Note: Update coming soon for cross browser blanking On submit redirection When the submit button is clicked you can redirect the user to any page you want. On submit frame resize When the submit button is clicked you can resize the frame to allow access to more forms or areas of the page. On submit pop up message When the submit button is clicked you can pop up a custom message. Geographical targeting Redirect the user to certain offers depending on their geographical country location. Example: US, UK, AU, CN Random offer rotation Redirect to different offers on random Offer page frame cropping You can view the offer page and drag your mouse to draw a square around the area you want to crop into its own frame Second page offer frame cropping This allows you to also crop the second page of the offer in case you have to fill out more forms. Real-time offer frame view You will be able to see how your cropped offer will look in the browser. P3P session headers Many people complain about offers not converting, this is an extra safety feature which abides by P3P rules and will hopefully make more conversions. Browser compatibility adjust The frame will adjust its size to display correctly in most browsers. Tags: cpa, mmo
