Everyone loves the look and feel of the new "Web 2.0" style templates and there is a seriously high demand for them. After spending the last week studying up on how generate this "style" with Photoshop, I saw something interesting. . . There were only a handful of holiday based Web 2.0 style templates! And, boy oh boy were they expensive. Ranging anywhere from $35 to $65 a piece!! Waaaaaay too much in my book. Then I figured, "Hey. I know how to do this stuff, and have all the tools to do it. Why not make my own holiday based web 2.0 style templates???" So, here they are. Ready for you to view. Ready for you to use. And resell if you choose. Here Are The 13 Web 2.0 Style Halloween Headers

As I stated earlier, these are 100 unique and not available anywhere else. The designs are brand spankin' new so you are sure to get something that is completely different from anything you have seen before. While they are only "header" templates, it's easy enough to build the remainder of the web site around them. And, being that they also come in a "blank" style, meaning no "My Site" or "Site Name" text, you can always add your own and simply use the image without quality loss or annoying background colors that you have to match behind them. Plus, that's why they're specially priced at only $10.00 for the entire collection. Then you can create your own entire site templates with one of the elements already completed for you ;-). Editing is super easy with any image editor program that can open .psd files. And, this stellar holiday "niche" collection comes complete with Full Master Resale Rights.
