UPDATED FOR PATCH 3.3! Getting Into A Solid Raid Team Needs More Than Gear Gear is pretty, gear is useful - gear is required. But these days, EVERYONE has good gear. So how do you tell the difference between well-gearred noob raiders and well-gearred seasoned raiders? Check Their Gear Enhancements. Specific Gems and high level Enchants are an important part of a Seasoned Raiders gearing arsenal, and even their leveling alts benefit! You wont get into a solid progression Raiding Team without applying this knowledge, and you might even get squeezed out of your existing raid spot!! Now that you know, do you want to spend hours researching what Gems and Enchants are best for you, on graphically-laden websites that take forever to load? Or do you just want to PLAY? I know my answer, I so made these guides so I would never have to duplicate the research with my family of toons. Now you can benefit too :)
