Fully Protected Members Area Ive put up many sites in my time as an online marketing, and no job is more time consuming and frustrating than integrating payment processors, access management and affiliate tracking scripts at the same time. With FireSoft 1.2, theres no need. It tracks your affiliates and keeps your membership area for your members eyes only. Multiple Members Levels Firesoft 1.2 gives you the flexibility to offer enhanced product downloads or a different package entirely to separate groups of members. Capture the full profit potential of your sale by offering your joint ventures something special and provide your big spenders with expensive packages without having to cut out the little guys who cant afford a high ticket item. How many products you let them download and how much they have to pay you to get them is entirely controlled by you. You also have the power to promote or demote them automatically or manually at any time. One Time Offer Support With back end one time offer upgrade rates reported as being in excess of 70, why waste the opportunity to get your big spenders to spend even more with you? You can potentially double your profit from a single sale with this feature alone. You Decide Who To Pay First Inspire confidence in your products for your affiliates and pay them the first cut, or make sure you catch any potential sale breaking problems early on by paying yourself the first cut. Its entirely your choice. Unlimited Sale Length & Custom Pricing Add an unlimited number of products to your sale of an unlimited length. Whether you want to run your sale for twelve years or twelve hours, it can be done with FireSoft 1.2. You could even make a full-blown membership site out of it by adding additional products and making use of your customers and affiliates to buy and promote follow-up products at a later date, all with a few clicks of your mouse, all under one domain. The only limit is your imagination. Contact Your Members When You Want E-mail your members, affiliates or joint ventures updates and special offers at any time. Which member level you e-mail is entirely your choice, and you don't need to worry about annoying your personal joint venture contacts either. They can automatically or manually be placed in a high priority category and mailed only when you want to contact them specifically. Customizable Automated E-mail Nothing beats the feeling of getting congratulatory e-mails every time you make a sale or a special unexpected bonus for customers when they sign up. Get your affiliates to promote for longer and get your customers to buy from you over and over on complete autopilot by customizing automated e-mails for signups, referrals and commission announcements for each member level and even individuals.
