RSS Publishing Made Easy was designed to introduce the Internet Business Community to a new marketing approach, the same approach that many of the gurus are now pushing. With the decline of eMail marketing, we've been forced to venture to new technology in order to get responsive advertising. RSS feeds are the hot new way to bring in highly targeted website visitors, for a very small price. Employ RSS feeds on your own website and syndicate your news, announcements, and articles across the globe! It's all possible using RSS Feeds! Tags: rss
