Now, you can easily format your auto-responder emails, check and correct SPAM filter trigger words, and do it all with the push of a single button! Email Format Pro is a very simple and easy to use Windows Desktop program. See the screen shots of the application in action to your right -- Just copy/paste your unformatted email content into the text area, set the character width you like, choose which symbol to use to correct any SPAM filter trigger words, then press the format button. Takes only seconds to format your email content and have it ready to go!.. The formatted emails work with all auto-responders and desktop email applications... Never worry about triggering SPAM filters again... No installation, just click it and run it..
